

The College of Management for Agriculture and Rural Development II always concentrates on building the wide relation with International Government and Non-Government Organizations.

International cooperation is significant in exchanging information and achievements of management science and technical science, sharing the experience in training and management and scientific research.

In the latest years, the cooperation is increasing, which raises the view of lecturers and managers in updating information and learning various knowledge of agricultural management and rural development, experiences in training the human resources in agriculture and rural development.

We cooperate with the international organizations to carry out the scientific research, application, training, consultancy, etc., Now, The College of Management for Agriculture and Rural Development II has the close relation with international organizations such as Ho Bac Officials Training Center (Vu Han, Ho Bac, Trung Quoc); Searsoline Center (Philippine); New Brunswick University (Canada); InWent (Germany), Thai AIT, etc.