

The main training and retraining programs of Faculty of Extension and Rural development base on local's need or projects that they were established training courses in a short or long time. It depends on purposes, demands of training , retraining of partner selected by agricultural extension including suitable majors to make a training course (retraining program).

This ia a special subjects which faculty of agricultural extension and rural development can undertake in the training courses.

- Agricultural extension and system of agricultural extension.
- Principles and methods of agricultural extension.
- Skills write news and reports of agricultural extension.
- Technical development has participant.
- Agricultural extension's methods of training course has participant.
- Agricultural extension's methods of training course on the scene.
- Communication psychology
- To build plan of agricultural extension which has participant.
- Information of market and agricultural extension.
- Highly technological agriculture.
- Supporting forestry.
- Supporting fishery.
- To argue on development of stable countryside.
- To orient and campaign for rural development.
- Policies develop currently agriculture and rural area.
- Principles develop rural area.
- Evaluated rural area which has participated by farmers.
- To manage projects of rural development.
- To manage region's environment and resources.
- Community development.
- Communication skills in community.
- Limit and development.
- To set up and develop in associate groups.
- Mentality and art of management.
- To develop non-agricultural career in the countryside.
- Inhabitants arrangement.
- Co-operative's legislation and related documents.
- Methods evaluate demands to set up co-operatives and teams of co-operative.
- Skills mobilize to establish co-operative and teams of co-operative.
- Skills build co-operative development project which has participant.
- To develop stable co-operative.
- Substance of new-style co-operative.
- Principles of co-operative

Which training and retraining programs do Faculty of Extension and Rural Development have?

- Process builds co-operative.
- Forms organize cooperation economy.

Some programs were undertook by courses of agricultural extension and rural development